

RMIT English Worldwide has been producing customised course and assessment materials since 2000. The English Academic Passport suite of materials includes student books, teacher books, eCourse materials, syllabus guides, course audio, grammar guides and assessment. This quality, innovative Academic English Program has been designed and developed in-house by a dedicated curriculum and publishing team in Melbourne. The comprehensive program prepares students for university study with six levels of English language education, from Elementary to Advanced Plus, focusing on academic skills at all levels.

Through collaboration with partners such as RMIT Vietnam, RMIT English Worldwide delivers reputable English language education, through the EAP program to students studying throughout the world. The program is a complete solution for institutional partners and can be tailored to include regional support services, including teacher training and development. Partners can also benefit from access to a wider teaching community to ensure further responsiveness to students' language needs and interests.

Both teachers and students value the new curriculum, and it has been endorsed favourably within the ESL industry.

‘Unreservedly I was extremely impressed by the quality of the product that the team here at REW has developed. I believe organisations like REW have played a significant role in enhancing Australia’s reputation as a quality deliverer of EFL/ESL programs both onshore and offshore.’

Seamus Fagan

Director of the University of Newcastle’s English Language and Foundation Studies Centre

‘I have really enjoyed using the REW curriculum, the international flavour means I know that my students are able to recognise themselves in some of the texts and images presented. One of the best aspects of the curriculum is that it extends beyond the walls of the classroom—students can access the eCourse and audio content from home and even check their answers to homework tasks in a fun and interactive way.’

Fiona Wiebusch, Teacher - Upper Intermediate

English Language Programs Centre of Communication & Design, RMIT University Vietnam

‘The Advanced and Advanced Plus levels were very helpful, especially the new course materials. It was definitely good preparation for university life.’

Manal Hasan, Student - Pre Intermediate to Advanced Plus
